PART IV

RELATING TO

CREDIT UNIONS

DEPARTMENT OF BANKING AND INSURANCE

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

OFFICE OF THE COMMISSIONER OF BANKS
STATE HOUSE, BOSTON 33, January 17, 1945

To the Honorable Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts:

The abstract of the annual report of the Commissioner of Banks, required by General Laws, Chapter 167, section 9, is respectfully submitted herewith. The complete report covering the work of this department and containing statements of the institutions under its supervision and other statistical information will be submitted as heretofore at a later date.

Respectfully submitted,

F. EARL WALLACE,
Commissioner of Banks.

It is a pleasure to be able to report that the state banking structure is in a very sound condition, and reflects an unprecedented degree of liquidity. The exceptionally low volume of risk loans and the substantial increase in deposits have resulted in strong cash positions and large investments in government bonds. Substandard and distressed loans, particularly those involving real estate which grew out of the depression years, have been greatly reduced. Splendid work has been done by the bankers in liquidating such loans, with the result that the amount still outstanding is small in relation to total loans.

Preferred stock holdings in trust companies growing out of depression troubles have been retired in full in some cases and reduced in some others. Reserves have been built up substantially, and in all ways the banking structure is in a splendid position to meet the reasonable demands of business and industry now and in the post war period.

Every effort is being made by the state banks to meet the needs of the returning veterans under the Servicemen's Readjustment Act of 1944, popularly known as the "G. I. Bill of Rights", and to meet the needs of business, in all ways compatible to sound banking.

Conference studies are taking place frequently throughout the Commonwealth for the purpose of analyzing and considering changing conditions and new types of demands for service which undoubtedly will be made upon the banks in the post war period.

It is gratifying to say that our state banks are doing their utmost to serve the people of our Commonwealth and our nation during the present confused and difficult times.

CREDIT UNIONS

Credit unions were originally designed, and for many years were actually operated, for the making of small loans. Thrift savings were encouraged only to the extent of providing sufficient funds to finance the needs of borrowers. Under present conditions, however, this conception of credit union operation has been radically changed. The greatly increased income of many credit union members, particularly those in certain industrial enterprises, together with the absence of durable goods from the market, has almost completely eliminated the necessity for borrowing. As a result, the total personal loans of credit unions has declined over $6,300,000 during the past three years. On the other hand, members urge the acceptance of funds to be credited to their accounts—funds which the credit unions often refuse to accept because of the difficulty of making sound, profitable investments. Because of these conditions, credit unions today are primarily thrift savings institutions.

On December 31, 1944, there were four hundred and fifty-four credit unions in operation, a decrease of four during the year, five having commenced business and nine having entered into voluntary liquidation. Applications for credit union charters are made infrequently. It is likely that several groups that have contemplated making such applications have been deterred from taking the initial step because of the pressure of daily employment caused by war conditions and the further consideration that the profitable investment of funds is extremely difficult.

On October 31, 1944, the date of the last available report, there were four hundred and fifty-six credit unions, having assets of $40,638,885.45, representing an increase of $4,377,741.24 since October 30, 1943. Such assets include about $12,000,000 invested in War Savings Bonds, about $2,000,000 in other bonds, and nearly $3,000,000 in the shares of co-operative banks. Deposits in savings banks amount to over $2,700,000, and cash on hand and on deposit in commercial banks amount to over $5,400,000. Of about $40,600,000 in total assets, over $25,000,000 is represented by cash and liquid investments, which will enable our credit unions to meet any condition which may arise in the immediate future.

RECOMMENDATIONS FOR LEGISLATION

(As submitted in accordance with G. L. (Ter. Ed.), Chapter 30, Section 33)

1. The "G. I. Bill of Rights" and Guaranteed Loans to Veterans

Congress enacted and the President signed, on June 22, 1944, the Servicemen's Readjustment Act of 1944, popularly referred to as the "G. I. Bill of Rights". This provided, among other benefits, for guaranties by the Veterans' Administrator of loans to veterans of World War II to enable them to acquire homes, farms or businesses, and business properties. The act contemplates that these loans will be made by established financial institutions or by individuals, rather than by the government or any governmental agency, and that the guarantee feature will justify an interest rate of four per cent per annum and higher ratios of amount of loan with respect to the value of the property affected than have heretofore been customary.

The Veterans' Administration issued on October 20, 1944, regulations under which veterans might obtain such loans to enable them to acquire, construct, improve, or rehabilitate home properties for their occupancy. To permit the veterans of the Commonwealth to obtain these loans from our state-chartered financial institutions, the Governor on October 18, 1944, by Executive Order No. 74, suspended, so far as they apply to these guaranteed loans, those provisions of law which limit the lending powers of banks, insurance companies and credit unions. The Commissioner of Banks and the Commissioner of Insurance are required by the Executive Order to issue, and have issued, regulations designed to conform any loans that the institutions within their respective jurisdiction may make to the regulations of the Veterans' Administrator, the Act of Congress and sound lending practices. As a result, the mortgage lending institutions of this State have been among the very first in the country to be able to serve qualifying veterans in the manner contemplated by Congress.

I anticipate that the Veterans' Administrator will shortly issue regulations with respect to the other types of loans contemplated by the Act. To permit our banks, insurance companies and credit unions to be of service to veterans, to the extent contemplated by this G. I. Bill, it will be necessary to suspend those provisions of our statute which restrict the powers of these institutions in making unsecured loans and loans on other than residential properties. The accompanying draft of a bill will effect such suspensions and will authorize the savings banks, trust companies, co-operative banks, credit unions and insurance companies of the State to co-operate with the Veterans' Administration in making available to the Commonwealth's veterans all the credits contemplated by the G. I. Bill of Rights, in accordance with the regulations of the Veterans' Administrator and such regulations as the Commissioner of Banks or the Commissioner of Insurance may deem proper or necessary.

2. Making Permanent the Statutes Under Which Banking Institutions May Make Loans Insured by the Federal Housing Administrator

Banking institutions are permitted to make loans insured by the Federal Housing Administrator by Chapter 162 of the Acts of 1935, and numerous extensions thereof. The Act as originally drawn, however, tends to restrict the powers of certain of these institutions with respect to certain non-mortgage loans. This fact, and the further fact that the Act's many amendments make it difficult to easily determine its current provisions, warrant a modification of part of the law, and a re-enactment of its several now scattered provisions. The accompanying draft of legislation is designed to accomplish these ends, and to make the act a permanent part of our banking law.

3. Memberships of Thrift Institutions in Certain Associations and Contributions by Thrift Institutions to Certain Charities.

Under existing laws the savings banks and the co-operative banks of the Commonwealth are empowered to become members of associations organized for the purpose of protecting and promoting the interests of such banks, and to pay a proportionate share of the expenses of maintaining such associations. Since this permission was given, it has become apparent that the present law is too restrictive as there are today certain associations which were organized for the protection and promotion of the interests of banks and mortgage lenders in general, in which memberships might be very valuable to savings banks and co-operative banks.

Our banking laws lack any provision expressly authorizing thrift institutions to contribute any part of their deposit or share capital or the income thereof to any of the charitable organizations found today in most communities. Section 12A of General Laws, Chapter 155, empowers corporations to contribute reasonable sums to any general fund being raised by a relief committee or agency approved by the Commissioner of Public Welfare. I consider it desirable that our thrift banks should have this power but it also seems proper that the General Court should fix some maximum preferably based upon income, which thrift institutions may expend for memberships or in contributions in any one period. The accompanying draft of legislation proposes a limit of one-half of one per cent of the income of the next preceding dividend period upon such expenditures.

4. Making Permanent Certain Provisions of Law Modifying the Requirements for Investments in Real Estate Mortgages by Banking Institutions

Chapter 191 of the Acts of 1936 permitted institutional lenders to accept from bona fide purchasers of equities of properties on which they held mortgages, new mortgages not in excess of the amounts then due for principal balances, interest, taxes or liens and other proper charges. This act has been extended from time to time, and now becomes inoperative after December 31, 1945. Eight years' experience has demonstrated the value of this act, and warrants its being made a permanent part of our law. It enables our banks and insurance companies to replace mortgagors who have been unable to discharge their obligations as the lenders would like by others who are considered better risks in cases where, but for this act, the property involved could not qualify for a new loan. I recommend that its provisions be made a part of General Laws, Chapter 167.

5. Certain Technical Corrections in the Laws Relating to Trust Companies

Section 75 of General Laws, Chapter 172 gives the Commissioner authority to regulate from time to time, as the regulations of the Federal Reserve system may be changed, the reserve requirements of trust companies. Through inadvertence language appearing in earlier forms of this section has been embodied in its present form, in a manner that tends to restrict the practical use of this authority. I therefore recommend that the words "reserve balances" be replaced by the word "reserves" in the last sentence of the section.

Section 80 of Chapter 172 governing the payment of dividends to stockholders of trust companies, defines certain obligations as statutory bad debts. The definition excepts those debts which are well secured and in process of collection. The phrase "in process of collection" is capable of so many interpretations that establishing proper practical exceptions to the definition has proved extremely difficult. I recommend that the exception be rephrased.

6. Extension of Chapter 235 of the Acts of 1943

The uncertainties of these times of war and of the period that is bound to follow the war continue to exist, and I therefore recommend that Chapter 235 of the Acts of 1943 be continued in effect for two more years.

7. Limitations on the Liability of One Borrower

Under existing laws a co-operative bank may lend one borrower up to $10,000 or 1 per cent of all its mortgage loans, within a $50,000 limit on a direct reduction mortgage basis, and may at the same time lend the same borrower a loan and jointly with others an additional $16,000 on co-operative form loans. These separate limits could permit a favored borrower to secure from one bank a total mortgage credit in a sum substantially larger than seems desirable in an institution designed primarily for owner-occupancy home financing. I therefore recommend that co-operative banks be limited in their power to lend to one borrower on both types of mortgages to the larger of the separate limits now prescribed.

8. Real Estate Mortgages in Credit Unions

Existing laws permit credit unions to make mortgage loans upon real estate already subject to two or even more superior liens, and the present restrictions upon mortgage loans by these institutions are so vaguely worded that the practical interpretation of the present provisions is difficult. I recommend that our statute be so changed that only first mortgages upon improved real estate may be accepted by these institutions, upon a demand or three-year basis, and then only for not more than 60 per cent of the value of the premises mortgaged; that mortgages on unimproved real estate be restricted to 50 per cent of the value of the premises and that the power of the credit unions to lend more than 60 per cent upon improved real estate be confined to those loans which require reasonable amortization. The accompanying draft of legislation is intended to accomplish these purposes.
